CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. All bids to be per lot as numbered in the Catalogue.
2. The highest bidder to be the buyer; in all cases of disputed bids the lot shall be resold, but the Auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims and his decision shall be final. He also reserves the right to reject any fractional or nominal bid which in his judgment may delay or injuriously affect the sale.
3. Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on account as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased to be immediately resold.
4. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk within twenty-four hours from the conclusion of the sale, and the remainder of the purchase money to be absolutely paid on or before delivery, in default of which The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will not be responsible if the lot or lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to storage charges.
5. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of purchases, no lot will be delivered during the sale.
6. All lots will be exposed for public exhibition in The Anderson Galleries before the date of sale, for examination by intending purchasers, and The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will not be responsible for the correctness of the description, authenticity, genuineness, or for any defect or fault in or concerning any lot, and makes no warranty whatever, but will sell each lot exactly as it is, without recourse. But upon receiving before the date of sale expert opinion in writing that any lot is not as represented, The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will use every effort to furnish proof to the contrary, and in default of such proof the lot will be sold subject to the declaration of the aforesaid expert, he being liable to the owner or owners thereof for damage or injury occasioned by such declaration.
7. Terms Cash. Upon failure to comply with the above conditions any sum deposited as part payment shall be forfeited, and all such lots as remain uncleared after twenty-four hours from the conclusion of the sale, will be resold by either private or public sale at such time as The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, shall determine, without further notice, and if any deficiency arises from such resale it shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale together with all the expenses incurred thereby. This condition shall be without prejudice to the right of The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, to enforce the contract with the buyer, without such resale.
8. Bids. We make no charge for executing orders for our customers and use all bids competitively, buying at the lowest price permitted by other bids.
9. The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will afford every facility for the employment of carriers and packers by the purchasers, but will not be responsible for any damage arising from the acts of such carriers and packers.

The list as above completes the set, No. 36 being the title with supposed biography of the artist and description of the work by the famous poet Sanyo-Shutei; each signed by Hiroshige and with the publisher's mark "Yama-Fuji of Yedo," An extremely rare set in fine condition, and said to be the first issue of about 1850. The masterpiece of this great landscape artist, and very difficult to secure in complete sets as above.

12 AWA NARUTO NO FUKEI. Triptych. View of the Whirlpool Awa. The noted rapids in the channel dividing Shikoku from Awaji, with the hills on the further side.

*First issue, and a fine copy with good margins for joining up. Full size, upright, signed Hiroshige, with seal Tokai no In, dated Snake 4 (4th month, 1857).

13 BUYO KANAZAWA HACHI SHO YAKEI. Triptych. Moonlight scene in Kanazawa, Province of Musashi, showing inlet on the shore of Tokyo Bay.

*First issue, full size, upright with margins, signed Hiroshige, with seal Ichiryusai, dated Snake 7 (7th month, 1857).

14 MORNING AT SHINAGAWA BAY. White sailed fishing boats on the horizon, a village to right with Soshu, at the further side.

*Fine print, oblong, signed and with seal.

15 AUTUMN MOON AT TAMAGAWA. A large willow stands on the bank of the river with full moon above.

*A beautiful brown print in fine condition, full size, oblong, signed Hiroshige.

16 TEMPLE AT MASAKI. Two ferrymen on a raft rowing toward the Temple.

*A famous snow scene in fine condition. Oblong, signed and with seal.

17 OMI HAKKEI. Night Scene from the "Eight Views of Omi." A magnificent landscape, showing Lake Biwa under the light of the full moon. On the veranda of the Temple to the left, is seen the Poetess Shikibi, admiring the moon.

*Triptych. This night print with the full moon is a famous masterpiece of the artist, and very rare. Full size, signed Hiroshige, and with seal.

(See Illustration, Plate VI.)

18 A YOUNG GIRL. KAKEMONO PAINTING. She holds a fan in her right hand and the lower part of her kimono with the left. Unmounted.

*A fine example of figure painting by the artist. Signed Hiroshige, and with seal.
HOKUSAI-KATUSHIKA. 1760-1849.
One of the greatest landscape artists of Japan.

19 MOTHER AND HER TWO MISCHIEVOUS BOYS.
She is seated with a boy on her knee, while the other is bringing her his drum and stick.
*Printed in dull red, pale grey and black on a white ground. Signed Zun-Hokusai.

HYAKUNIN ISSHU UBAGA YETOKI: "The Hundred Poems Explained by the Nurse". Part of a set of the twenty-six published sheets of this series. Full size, oblong, signed Zen-Hokusai Manji, published by Yeljudo of Yedo, 1839; each bearing the publisher's seal.

20 POEM BY FUJIWARA-YORINOBU. A large sailing-boat on the river in the foreground, with village and mountain ranges further back.
*First issue.

21 POEM BY SARUMARU-TAIYU. A group of village maidens with baskets on their backs and Gomikaki in their hands walking on a mountain road to the village below; grey mists separate them from mountains with autumn foliage.
*First issue.

22 POEM BY KAKINO-HOTOMARO. Fishermen in the foreground pulling in their nets; house and mountain in the back.
*Fine print, but a later issue.

23 POEM BY FUJIWARA-MICHINOBU. A group of half-naked Kagoya, hurrying toward the grey field below.
*Fine print, but a later issue.

24 POEM BY JITOTENNO. People crossing a narrow stream; two men bowing low to each other, and clothes bleaching in the distance.
*First issue and a beautiful print.

25 POEM BY ARIWARA NO UARIHIRA. Happy peasants crossing a bridge over the Tatsuta River, near Nara in Yamato, in autumn when maple leaves tint the streams.
*First issue and in fine condition.
26 POEM BY SANGI TAKAMURA. Women on the coast of Ise diving for Awabi shells; a boat is seen putting out to sea.

*First issue. A powerful print, one of the best in the set and in fine condition.

27 POEM BY MOTOYOSHI SHINNO. Peasant dragging a laden ox in the foreground near the shore, where two women with umbrellas are standing gazing across the bay as if looking for some one’s approach.

*First issue.

28 POEM BY FUJIWARA YOSHINAO. An Inn with travellers bathing, while two graceful ladies stand on an Engawa looking at the blue sea beyond.

*First issue of a beautiful print.

FUGAKU SAN-JU ROKKEI: "The Thirty-Six Views of Fuji". Hokusai's masterpieces. A part of the first issue of 1823 to 1829 by the publisher Yeijudo of Yedo, and each signed Zen-Hokusai. All are in fine condition and good impressions.

29 GAI-FU KAISEI. "Breeze, Fine Weather." A beautiful day with the South Wind blowing on the slopes of Fuji, the lower sides covered with foliage up to the red earth; the summit and crevices filled with snow; great masses of straight white clouds fill the sky.

*First issue, and similar to the impression sold at Sotheby's last year for a high price.

30 YAMA SHITA HAKU-U. "White Mountain, under Rain." Lightning breaks through the clouds at the base; daybreak illumining the snow-clad mountain peaks, all the rest in darkness save for the flash, and white clouds curling in the distance.

*First issue, and a really good print, similar to the impression which brought a high price at Sotheby's.

31 YEDO NIHON-BASHI. Fuji seen from the famous bridge to the left. On both sides of the river are closely-built houses with crowds of busy people crossing to and fro. The present Mikado's palace is seen in the distance.

*First issue, and charming tone.
32 KOSHU OMI TOGE. Lordly Fuji rises in the air, skirted with white mist; a mountain in the foreground where travellers are leading their horses towards the steep incline.
*First issue, and a fine print.

33 TOBITA NO SUISHA. Distant Fuji rises from the mist to the right; mill and large wheel in the foreground, the miller and his wife busy around the stream.
*Probably later issue.

34 TOKAIDO YOSHIDA. Distants Fuji seen from the open window of an Inn, where travellers have arrived and are preparing for the adventure of climbing on the morrow.
*First issue.

35 NOTO-URA. Distant Fuji seen through a Torii (gate) that stands in the water in the foreground. In the shallows are groups of happy people gathering sea-shells; a village in the middle distance to the right.
*Later issue.

36 ILLUSTRATION OF A POEM BY RIHAKU. An aged poet stands near a waterfall pouring over a cliff, gazing in admiration; his two boy attendants with hands clasped around him prevent their aged master from falling over into the chasm.
*First issue. A similar copy was sold at Sotheby's last year.

37 ILLUSTRATION OF A POEM BY SEI SHONAGON. Referring to Prince Moshoku, who, escaping from captivity, arrived at the gate of Kan to find it closed (only to be opened after cock-crow). One of his retainers has climbed a tree and imitates the crowing of a cock so well that the guards are seen opening the gate to allow the party to pursue their journey.
*First issue. A similar print brought a high price at Sotheby's. Sei Shonagon wrote this poem to her lover Yukinari, who left her early one morning on the excuse that the crowing made him think day was near. (See Illustration, Plate VI.)
HOKUSAI-KATUSHIKA—Continued.

38 ILLUSTRATION OF A POEM BY SHONENGYO. The poet mounted on horseback pursues his aged father up a mountain road on the shore of a lake.
*Later issue.

39 FUNA BASHI OF KOTSUKE. Snow scene. The bridge crossing from the foreground to the further side of the bank with snow-laden hills beyond.
*One of the set "Views of the Bridges." First issue, rare, full size, oblong, signed Hokusai, with the seal of the publisher Yeijudo.

40 KUMOMI BASHI OF ASHIKAGA. A cliff to right with Shrine and suspension bridge leading to the left of the cliff, rises above the clouds clustered around the lower part.
*From the same set as the preceding. Signed.

41 TAIKO BASHI OF YEDO. A high curved bridge crossing from left to right, on which people are standing, admiring the view of the Temple gardens.
*First issue of a fine print from the same set as the foregoing. Oblong, signed with the seal of the publisher Yeijudo.

42 A TAMUKI (BADGER) dressed as a human being walking towards a Bunbuku Chagama beside which lies a spirit fan. Seal of Katsushika. Kakemono. Painting on paper. 70x12 inches.
*A fine example of Hokusai's painting in fine condition. It shows the usual powerful work of this artist in completing the whole in a few brush strokes.

KIYONAGA (TORII). 1752-1814.
Noted for the elegance and beauty of his prints.
One of the best colorists of the school.

43 OIRAN AND HER LOVER ON PARADE. Passing under a cherry tree, an attendant on either side and followed by a Jotyu.
*A beautiful print in good condition. Full size, signed Kiyonaga, with seal of the publisher, Yeijudo. (See No. 48 for slight variation).

*Fine low tones and in fine condition. Full size, signed Kiyonaga.

*An exceedingly rare print in very fine condition, and a fine impression. One of the best specimens of Kiyonaga's work, and considered the finest print in the collection. Full size, upright, signed Kiyonaga. (See Frontispiece, Plate I.)

48 OIRAN WITH ATTENDANTS WALKING under Cherry Blossoms.

*Fine print in fine condition, full size, signed Kiyonaga, and with seal Yeijudo. (See No. 43).

49 KUNIGIKU OF MAGABAYA. Walking with her companion Oiran preceded by two Kamuros.

*Brilliant impression, full size, signed Kiyonaga.

50 NIOTERU OF OGIYA. A famous beauty of the Yoshiwara gossiping with her companion who is seated on an Engawa, with attendant Kamuro.

*Fine in impression and coloring, the blue of No. 44 is here changed to lavender, forming an interesting example of Kiyonaga's three-color prints similar to that sold here in the Nomura Collection.

51 GEISHA GIRLS WALKING. Each assists in carrying the umbrella; they are followed by a Jotyu.

*Fine coloring and impression. Full size, signed.
KORIUSAI (ISODA). 1720-1782.
An artist of great power whose prints are elegant and decorative.

52 MITSUHANA OF OMUSHIYA. The Beauty of Yedo walking in the rain followed by a Banto who holds an umbrella over her and accompanied by two Kamuros.
  *Fine print in good condition. Full size, signed Koriusai, with publisher's seal of Yeijudo. See No. 57 for interesting variation.

53 TOYOHARU OF CHOJIYA. The famous belle of the Yoshiwara walking with her Kamuro (attendant) on either side of her.
  *Fine impression and coloring. One of the best prints of the artist and very rare. Full size, upright, signed Koriusai and with the publisher's seal, Yeijudo.
    (See Frontispiece, Plate I.)

54 MANCHU OF MANJUYA. Gorgeously dressed and walking to the Yoshiwara, turning to speak to two attendants who follow.
  *A fine print in good condition, full size, signed Koriusai, with the seal of Yeijudo.

55 GROUP OF OIRANS WALKING. Full size, signed Koriusai with Yeijudo's seal.
  *An interesting print showing the clever use of cold with touch of warmer color; fine condition.

56 WAKAMATSU OF HARAYA. Dressed for a walk, followed by her three Kamuros.
  *Rare and interesting print, showing clever use of warm and contrasting cold color printed on a grey wash ground. Full size, signed Koriusai, seal of Yeijudo.
    (See Illustration, Plate IV.)

57 MITSUHAWA OF OMUSHIYA. Walking in the rain, followed by a Banto carrying an umbrella to shelter her, accompanied by two Kamuros under an umbrella.
  *A beautiful print, in silvery grey color. Full size, signed Koriusai. (See No. 52).

58 SHISHIGIRI OF HINAYA. The famous Yedo belle on parade, followed by four young girl attendants.
  *Rare and fine in both coloring and impression. Full size, signed Koriusai.

59 TWO GIRLS. One stands by her companion seated on an Engawa while they talk with each other. To the back is seen the inside of the house.
  *A fine example of the artist's three-color print and in fine condition. Full size, signed Koriusai.

60 TWO GIRLS CAUGHT IN A SHOWER. One holds an umbrella to protect them from the heavy rain.

Hashiraye. A splendid example of a three-color print on a light grey ground; one of the famous prints of the artist, signed Koriusai. Extra large upright, with some time-spots.

(See Illustration, Plate V.)

MOROMASA (KOZAN). Flourished 1700-1730.

61 A BELLE OF THE GENROKU PERIOD. Standing near an Endai under the plum blossoms mirroring her figure in a brook.

*Exceptionally rare. The impression is clear and the quality superb. One of the best prints in the collection. Small square print, signed Moromasa.

OJU. Flourished 1760-1775.

62 A LAUGHING DANCER. Wearing a wild rose kimono and black Obi. She is standing under the Cherry Blossoms, holding a fan. Signed and with publisher’s mark.

*A rare print and an extra large Hashirakake, printed in three colors.

JAPANESE PAINTINGS ON SILK AND PAPER.

Many of Which Are Mounted on Brocade as Kakemonos.

YOYA-YAMADA. Flourished about 1827.

Noted for his paintings of bird-life, a popular artist whose work is well represented in public and private collections in Japan.

63 HAWK PERCHED ON A CLIFF, the roses blooming at his feet. Painted on silk and mounted as a kake-mono.

*A fine example of pure Japanese art. Signed Yoya with seal and date as “painted in his 7th month of 73 years old.”
PAINTING OF THE TOSA (Colorist) SCHOOL.
Early Eighteenth Century.

64 AN ANGEL MUSICIAN. Standing on the seashore in flowing robes, playing the flute, and accompanied by four children, charmed by the music and dancing with joy. Painted and mounted on silk as a kakemono. 43 x 26 inches.

*A beautiful and important example of the early colorist school. The seal mark of the artist (undecipherable) is in the right corner.

TOSA SCHOOL OF THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY.

65 TWO KANNUSHI ON THE SEASHORE. Standing under a Pine Tree with attendant. Painted on paper. 24 x 17 inches.

*A very interesting example of the early Tosa (Colorist) School, but worm-eaten and otherwise damaged by time.

TOGOKU: Early 18th Century Artist.
Great figure painter of the Chinese, whose work is much esteemed.

66 PHILOSOPHERS. The one in front with large Tzuzuba and Sango; another stands behind, holding a Lotus Blossom; ancient money and Sango scattered at their feet. Painting on paper. With Togoku’s seal. Mounted as a Kakemono. (Slight damage). 60 x 15 inches.

*A very fine and beautiful painting.

TENRYU-DOJIN. Flourished 1570-1620.
A great colorist and animal painter of the early Seventeenth Century. He was a powerful Bonzu of the Hiheizan and passed his existence on that remote mountain studying animal life. His paintings have been compared to Sozen, noted for his monkeys.

67 HAWK AND MONKEY. The hawk, perched on a blossoming cherry trunk, looks down on the monkey cowering under a rock, grasping another branch of the cherry tree. Painted on sea-colored silk and mounted on silk as a Kakamono. 70 x 18 inches.

*A MASTERPIECE OF THE ARTIST AND CONSIDERED THE FINEST PAINTING IN THE COLLECTION. From the collection of the famous Lord Ono, and one of “the secret gold treasures” of his castle.
SHODO KANO. 1650-1705.
A famous painter of the Kano School of the Seventeenth Century, whose paintings are highly esteemed throughout Japan.

68 DRAGON COMING DOWN FROM HEAVEN. His head floating on a black cloud, and part of his body lost in driving clouds. Signed Shodo, and with seal. Painted on silk, mounted on silk brocade as a Kake-mono. 73 x 17 inches.
* A powerful painting and a splendid example in fine condition of the middle period of the Kano School.

MORONOBU SHISHIKAWA. 1632-1702.
One of the founders of the famous Ukiyoye School and one of the greatest colorists Japan has ever produced.

69 A GIRL WRITING LOVE LETTERS. Seated on an Endai with paper and brush, a red Suzuribako at her right. Inscribed back of the painting, "Moronobu-Shishikawa, he died 16th year Genroku" (1702). Painting on paper. Mounted as a Kakemono on silk brocade. (Time cracks). 65 x 22 inches.
* An extremely rare and beautiful painting of a master, most of whose work is now in Museums.

MASANOBU-KARINO. 1380-1477.
One of the three greatest artists in Japan and original founders of the Kano School; the father and teacher of Motonobu, one of Japan's greatest painters, and Court Painter to Lord Yoshimasa.

70 YASAN JIN. An allegorical figure in classic dress, with drawn sword, wearing a severe and stern expression. Painting on paper. Mounted as a Kakemono. (Some time cracks). 52 x 14 inches.
* Fine and rare example of an ancient painting, and one of the best specimens in the collection. Signed "Painted by Masanobu-Karino" and with the first owner's signature, Lord Ono, and inscription "Secret gold treasure of Ono-Daimyo." Dated 7th year of the Bunmei (1463). Paintings of this quality are rarely offered in this country. An unsigned example brought a very high price in the Buhachi sale in Tokio, some years ago.

SHIGEMASA (KITAO). 1738-1819.

71 ICHIKAWA DANJURO. Full length, standing in front of a Chochin, with sword at his side. Upright Hosoye, signed Shigemasa.
* An exceedingly rare Beni-ye print in good condition; the only perfect Beni-ye specimen in the collection.
